MOONDARRA UBER BRUT NV

$49

Light, fresh & dry. Apple, lemon zest, papaya & toast on the nose. Good effervescence, with a well-balanced & clean finish. Lots of complexity beyond just “an ordinary sparkling wine”.

FREDERICK STEVENSON RIESLING 2021

$49

A most proper varietal expression on this Riesling. Aromas of petrol, peach, apricot, lemonade and meadow flowers. Clean, crisp and refreshing on entry. Finishes off with a long, tangerine finish. The alcohol and acidity levels are medium, which is not the best contribution for long-term cellaring, but nevertheless, this is still a ridiculously quaffable wine we'd like to bathe in. Straight fire from Clare Valley.

TOMFOOLERY 'YOUNG BLOOD' GRENACHE 2020

$39

If you're a fan of Rioja and their early 'Joven' releases, you're in for a real treat. Inspired by Ben Chipman's travels across Europe, where fellow backpackers drank solely out of carafes, this Grenache breathes life into a category known mostly for heavy-duty wines. Fresh, fragrant, uncomplicated.

TOPPER'S MOUNTAIN TINTA RORIZ 2010

$49

Tinta Roriz aka Tempranillo originates from Rioja, but it is also widely spread in Portuguese wine regions in Douro River Valley where it makes one of the five main blending components of famous fortified Port wines. Topper's vintage Tinta Roriz is fresh and sweet on the nose with dominating aromas of strawberry jam, blueberries, roasted walnuts, roasted almonds and hint of coffee. The wine spent 9 years in old barrel to develop complex aromatic profile and sensationally silky texture.
